Personally Speaking

“Raised in a multigenerational family of entrepreneurs, I grew up observing and learning from both parents and grandparents who were successful international merchants. Business sense is instinctual to me and the entrepreneurial spirit is in my blood.

As a new college graduate, I aggressively saved my earnings, using them to launch a retail business that focused on office supplies. My partner and I built the company on a shoestring budget, turning a $100,000 investment into a business that was growing and thriving, producing $3.2 million sales and $446,000 net income by its 3rd year before being acquired for $800,000. I’ve produced many similar successes since.”

- ✓ Built real estate portfolio producing $320 million rental income annually.
- ✓ Grew a new international subsidiary from the ground up to produce an average of $85 million annually.
- ✓ Conceived, launched, and built a 5-location, 100+-faculty private school that generated $18 million per year.
- ✓ Managed major commercial and residential construction projects valued at more than $150 million.
- ✓ Increased annual passive, recurring rental income more than $100 million.
- ✓ Produced 100+% ROI on multiple distressed property investments through negotiations during acquisition, renovation, rental, and sales.

Dear Professional, Executive, or Aspiring Executive:

100kCareerMarketing.com is the culmination of nearly 20 years of successful experience. During this time, I have been privileged to work with thousands of executives, professionals, and leaders all across the U.S. and worldwide in developing their resumes and other career marketing documents.

I formed 100kCareerMarketing.com because of my ongoing dedication and commitment to delivering unparalleled service and quality to my clients. As demand for my services as an executive resume writer and career marketing strategist grew to far exceed the time available, a new model for delivery of my services to you was essential. 100kCareerMarketing.com was born of that need and it provides me with a way to deliver dedicated, personal attention to a very select number of clients - no more than 20 clients per year (approximately one person every 2 weeks).

Today, 100kCareerMarketing.com is the ONLY way to work with me one-on-one.

That's right. Because it takes time, collaboration, and intense attention to quality and detail to create truly compelling, powerful, results-generating executive career marketing portfolios, I make certain that I give you – and you exclusively – all of the time and attention you need.

I work with a VERY SELECT base of no more than 20 clients per year. When you hire me you benefit from not only my preeminent experience and expertise but from my exclusive, personal attention focused only on you and the creation of your career marketing portfolio. I would be honored to work with you. But my schedule fills up very quickly, so if you are ready, please reserve your spot today. Of course, if you have any questions, I will be happy to answer them. Just send a quick email or give my office a call.

I also invite you to book a personal 45-minute consultation with me, to go over your resume and job search concerns one-on-one, discuss the strategies I would use in writing your resume, answer your questions, and benefit from my recommendations. Although I charge for the consultation ($155), you have nothing to lose! If you book a consultation and then decide to proceed with my services I will give you a full $300.00 discount on my VIP executive services.
